

Jim Donnelly Joins Phoenix Business Development Team

James (Jim) Donnelly has joined Phoenix International Holdings to further develop business opportunities and strengthen its worldwide presence with clients for the growing Commercial Oil and Gas division.

Jim started over 40 years ago as a diver tender working his way to his current tenure as an accomplished technical sales representative with strengths in regional market development, account management and a proven track record of facilitating long term business relationships.

<https://www.hydro-international.com/content/article/jim-donnelly-joins-phoenix-business-development-team>
