

Oceans 2019 Marseille Conference and Exhibition Gets Underway

The Oceans 2019 Marseille conference will take place until 20 June on the Mediterranean coast in Marseille, France, at the Congress & Exhibition Center Chanot, with more than 2,000 delegates attending. The programme comprises of 88 technical sessions, six tutorials and two workshops, plus demonstrations at sea, roundtables and symposia. Over 100 exhibitors will present their products and services.

Technical Presentations

The conference will feature a host of technical presentations to inform delegates about a range of topics from Data Visualization to Marine Law. There is also a special keynote on Climate Change. There are also many sub-categories diving into each topic in more detail.

Lively Debates

There are five Round Table Discussions taking place at Oceans 2019. Each one will give you a unique point of view into the topic at hand followed by a lively debate. All five varied round tables are worth attending if you have the time.
