

China Maritime 2008 Forums

China Maritime 2008 will feature three forums on passenger vessels, world shipbuilding and waterfront/coastal development, respectively. Each will accommodate 60 participants on a first-in, best-dressed basis. In addition to these sessions, an exhibition will showcase the latest in maritime, shipping and port technology and services from around the world.

With the last China Maritime event having been a huge success, expectations for 2008 are high. In light of the calibre of participants already onboard, the congress organiser, Baird Events, expects be able to fully book the exhibitions. At this moment, over 60% is sold. China Maritime 2008 will be held at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre from 12th to 14th March 2008.

<https://www.hydro-international.com/content/news/china-maritime-2008-forums>
