

New Business Manager EdgeTech

EdgeTech has announced the appointment of Simon Reeves as International Business Development Manager. Simon has sixteen years experience in the marine industry, having run his own company, worked as Branch Manger for Radio Holland BV South Africa, Product Sales Manager for the advanced sonar systems at Ultra Electronics (Ocean Systems Division) and, more recently, as Sales Manager for MacArtney UK. Simon will initially be based in the UK, before moving to our new Wareham offices in Massachusetts.
