

New Name: AML Oceanographic

After 35 years of operation under the same name, Applied Microsystems Ltd. is changing its name to AML Oceanographic. The company wants to emphasise on their focus on oceanographic and hydrographic customers. We see our mission as the design and delivery of innovative solutions for oceanographers and hydrographers.

Over the coming weeks and months, changes in will be made to the logo, advertising, and website. The physical address will remain the same. All correspondence - electronic or otherwise - will continue to arrive, regardless of whether it is addressed to Applied Microsystems or AML Oceanographic.
