

Offshore Marine Group Relaunches Personnel Company

Offshore Marine Group, owner of Offshore Marine Management (OMM), has announced that due to the growth and success of its personnel department it will soon rename, rebrand and launch the existing department as Main Source Offshore People LTD (MSOP).

MSOP was launched at the RenewableUK Global Offshore Wind 2012 conference on 13 June and starts trading from 1 July 2012. MSOP has been created to specialise in the supply of personnel services to the offshore industries worldwide in a range of disciplines. MSOP will continue to provide the reliable and effective personnel solutions on which OMM has built its reputation within the industry for over nine years.

Martine Rondeel, general manager at MSOP, said that for more than nine years, OMM has successfully supplied personnel to the offshore cable installation, telecoms and renewables industries worldwide. This experience is to be continued within MSOP.

There will be no change to the personnel management or team.

<https://www.hydro-international.com/content/news/offshore-marine-group-relaunches-personnel-company>
