

Over 30 Industry Speakers "ADCPs in Action"

From 5th to 7th November, Teledyne RDI Acoustic Doppler Current Profiler (ADCP) and Doppler Velocity Log (DVL) users from around the globe will meet in San Diego (CA, USA) will meet. To date, Teledyne RDI has secured over 30 industry experts and professionals to speak at this event, supplemented by product/software training, a DVL integration seminar, customer forums, new product launches, poster papers, and third-party solutions.

This 3-day event will facilitate sharing the participant's field and laboratory experience, attend product/software training, and catch up on the latest industry trends once again be comprised of three simultaneous tracks including: flow measurement applications; waves measurement and current profiling applications; and precision navigation applications.

As always, this conference will also include social events, allowing for ample networking opportunities.

<https://www.hydro-international.com/content/news/over-30-industry-speakers-adcps-in-action>
