

Registration Open for 2015 AUVX Users Forum

Kongsberg Maritime and its subsidiary Hydroid welcome the AUV community to register for their AUVX Users Forum 2015 which is now officially open. Members of the global AUV community are invited to attend the AUVX Users Forum, scheduled from 21 to 25 September 2015 in Annapolis, Maryland, USA.

Hydroid's forum offers attendees the opportunity to share and discover the latest advancements in the world of AUVs. Through interactive workshops, user presentations, informative panel discussions and product demonstrations, existing users of Kongsberg and Hydroid AUVs will have the opportunity to share their experiences and knowledge in order to optimise their systems. Non-users are also welcomed to learn first-hand about the capabilities and applications of AUV technology.

The forum is open to all users of Kongsberg and Hydroid AUVs, with limited availability for non-users interested in learning more about the vehicles. The fee includes the welcome reception, presentations, panel discussions, workshops, demonstrations and the conference gala dinner, with entertainment. Additionally, attendees can participate in a golf outing at the famous Renditions golf course, and an Annapolis Harbor sunset sail. Attendees traveling with guests will be offered a guest day excursion to Washington, DC. The Forum will be held at the Annapolis Marriot Waterfront. The registration form is online.
