

Rugged Marine Computer

Built to perform in the harsh conditions at sea, MarineNav's Leviathan 13 marine computer system is a cost-effective solution for managing navigation software, vessel monitoring, charts, music and video. The LEV 13 can be customised to meet the user's requirements.

Available in either a rack-mount case or a compact surface-mount design, Leviathan computer systems feature the latest multi-layer vibration dampening and anti-shock technology.

<https://www.hydro-international.com/content/article/rugged-marine-computer>
