

South-west Coastal Monitoring Contract

Coastline Surveys, UK, has been awarded a five-year programme to provide single beam and bathymetric surveys to the South West Region in relation to coastal monitoring.

The surveys are scheduled to support the national network of strategic regional coastal monitoring programmes-framework agreement in the South West Region.

<https://www.hydro-international.com/content/article/south-west-coastal-monitoring-contract>
