

Unmanned Systems Exhibition and Symposium

AUVSI's Unmanned Systems North America 2006 offers from 29 to 31 August 2006 over 178,000 square feet of hardware and static equipment displays at the Gaylord Palms Resort and Convention Center in Orlando, Florida, USA. This event is sponsored by the Association for Unmanned Vehicle Systems International (AUVSI). Between the plenary sessions will feature:

- Dr. Thomas Killion, Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army
- RADM William E. Landay, III, Chief of Naval Research, ONR
- Major General Michael Kostelnik, USAF (Ret.), Department of Homeland Security, Assistant Commissioner, Office of CBP Air and Marine
- BG Walt Davis, Commander, JUAS Center of Excellence
- Air Cdre Nick Gordon, DEC ISTAR
- Mr. Jim Thomsen, PEO L&MW
- COL John D. Burke, USA, Program Manager, UAV Systems
- Dr. Norm Whitaker, Program Manager, DARPA Urban Challenge

Over 178,000 gross square feet of exhibit space and static displays are reserved for more than 240 exhibitors showing unmanned systems. There are 72 technical sessions and 40 poster boards covering the latest industry trends and activities, government program updates, technology briefings and operational reports representing air, land and maritime unmanned systems. The event is an opportunity to meet key decision-makers and propel your business forward in the unmanned systems community. All information about Unmanned Vehicle Systems International \(AUVSI\)

<https://www.hydro-international.com/content/news/unmanned-systems-exhibition-and-symposium>
